

A Classical Concert

with renowned string quintet

PENTATONIC

Andrew Watkinson is from Glasgow. He has been the first violin of the Endellion Quartet for 30 years and has performed over 2500 concerts with them all over the world. They have recently completed a 10 CD recording of all Beethoven's works for string quartet and quintet for Warner Classics. He also directs orchestras in this country and abroad and was for many years leader/director of the City of London Sinfonia.

Jane Carwardine works with many London chamber orchestras and is principal second violin of the Guildhall Strings and the City of London Sinfonia.

Takane Funatsu won an international violin competition in Spain whilst studying at the Toho College in Japan. She was a principal player in the Scottish Chamber Orchestra from 1997 to 2000. She now co-leads the Glyndebourne Touring Opera.

Clare Finimore co-founded the Guildhall Strings which has gone on to win international prizes, travel the world, broadcast on Radio & TV and record many CD's, on the latest of which Clare appears as soloist.

Shuna Wilson was the cellist of the Kandinsky Quartet for several years and she is now the cellist of the Galini piano trio. As an orchestral player she was principal cello of the City of London Sinfonia and London Bach orchestras for many years.

Friday 10th September 2010

at

St James's Church West Littleton

7.30pm

Drinks for sale in the interval

Tickets £12 from Carolyn Adams, St James's Grange
West Littleton, Chippenham Wiltshire, SN14 8JE.
Tel: 01225 891100.

Please enclose SAE. Cheques payable to St James's West Littleton PCC.